[FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.]

Canton, 2nd December.

THE NEW CHINESE MINISTER TO ST. JAMES' Mr. Tso-Ping Lang, who is reported in your columns as having been selected as Chinese Minister to the Court of St. James, is well known in mandarin circles here. He was born in Canton forty-eight years ago, and is a Bannerman, or member of the garrison supported here by the Manchus.

Mr. Tso has the Civil button of the First Rank, and is a Taotai. He was educated at the Tung Wen Kuan, being one of the first scholars admitted when that school was established in 1804. After leaving the school he proceeded to Europe, and was attached to the London and Paris embassies for four years. His knowledge of English is considerable, and he also learned to speak French, though not with equal facility.

On his return he served in China for some time, and was subsequently sent as Consul-General to Singapore, where he remained for twelve years. During this long period he was very popular with all classes of Chinese, and with the members of the Government.

Latterly he has been acting as Director of the school where he was educated. He left here some months ago for Peking.

The appointment of such an able and broad-minded man is a matter for gratification. The interests of China should be well served by Taotai Tso, and his liking for and knowledge of foreign manners will make him popular. No better choice could have been made.

SIR MATTHEW NATHAN AND THE VOLUNTEERS.

Sir Matthew Nathan has presented an "Efficiency Cup" to the Hongkong Volunteers. It is to be competed for by the half companies of H.K.V.A. and the H.K.V. Engineer Company, and be held for one year by the unit obtaining the greatest number of marks for efficiency, proficiency, and musketry. The total marks scored by each unit will be multiplied by the number of men in the largest unit, and divided by the actual number in the unit concerned, and one mark will be added for each efficient member of a unit on the muster roll on the date of the annual inspection. Officers and men will be reckoned separately to allow the proportion of proficiency marks to be accurately calculated.

SERIOUS CHARGES AGAINST EUROPEANS.

Three Europeans will be charged before the Magistrate to-day. It is alleged that on the morning of the 23rd ult. they hired a sampan at Blake Pier, and shortly after leaving, threw a Chinese youth overboard because he defied his mother and sister with whom they wanted to take liberties. The boy was picked up and made a report to the police. It was subsequently reported that the boat had been capsized in the harbour and some of its Chinese occupants had made their way to Lantau Island, where they reported to the Cheung Chan Police that the mother and a girl aged 16 years had later been thrown out of the boat by the Europeans. On the following day a search party was organised and the surrounding police stations, together with Macao, Canton, and the coastal port authorities, were communicated with and asked to look out for the Europeans. On Friday it was reported that the men had been seen in the New Territory near Ping Shan, and Sergeant Kerr set out to look for them, with the result that he arrested there men on suspicion. The police have picked up from the water the body of a Chinese woman, recognised by the children as their mother.

MESSRS. GREGOR &amp; CO.

A NEW ENTERPRISE AT HONGKONG. Mr. R. Pescio, the principal of a new local firm, Messrs. Gregor & Co., gave an inaugural luncheon at the offices of the Company, No. 34, Queen's Road Central, on Saturday. Among those present were Chev. Z. Volpicelli (Consul-General for Italy), Messrs. E. A. Hewett (Chairman of the Chamber of Commerce), D. W. Craddock (of the Canadian Pacific Railway), and W. H. T. Davis (of the Commercial Union Insurance Company). There were toasts at 11 a.m.

Chev. Volpicelli asked those present to drink to the success of the business—if it were as good as the wines they had sampled, Mr. Pescio would have nothing to complain of. Mr. Hewett said they always welcomed new enterprise if it was carried out in a thorough business-like manner, especially when it was that of a country (Italy) which had shown herself friendly to Great Britain.

Mr. Pescio thanked his guests for their good wishes, and emphasised his appreciation of Mr. Hewett's remarks concerning his country.

The firm of Gregor & Co. is quite a new one to Hongkong, though firms interested in it are very well known in the wine trade. Mr. Pescio recently arrived from Europe. His show-rooms are already very attractive, there being a display of wines and spirits of a large number of brands of every age and description. The offices of the Company are situated opposite the Post Office, in the billiard room of the old Hongkong Club building.

BILLIARDS.

A handicap billiard tournament, in which there were twenty-four entries, has been concluded at Kowloon Docks. In the semi-final W. Crawford, owing ten points, beat G. Humphreys, owing sixty points, by 200 to 175. E. Horton, owing eighty points, beat J. Parkes, owing a hundred points, by 200 to 195. In the final Horton beat Crawford by 200 to 85. Humphreys beat Parkes for third by 200 to 175.

TELEGRAMS.

BULGARIA.

LONDON, 1st December.

The Bulgarian Chamber has adopted an extraordinary credit of £1,750,000 for the purchase of ninety batteries of quick-firers, and for extending the Black Sea coast defences.

A "TIMES" CORRESPONDENT'S ADVENTURE.

LONDON, 2nd December.

Reuter's correspondent at Tangier wires that the mountaineers have made a determined attempt to capture the Times correspondent by ransacking the house, which was guarded; the attempt failed.

BRITISH NAVAL REFORM.

LONDON, 2nd December.

The Standard states that the chief reforms in the Navy as mentioned in the telegram dated 29th ult. will be the strengthening of the Home fleet so as to secure dominion from the North to Portland. The admiral of this fleet will eventually be the senior officer aboard. Gibraltar and Hongkong will be improved as bases, and colonial craft will be tried on foreign stations.

WRECK OF A PORTUGUESE TRANSPORT.

LONDON, 2nd December.

The Portuguese transport Sao Thome, bound for Macao, has been wrecked in the Red Sea. 344 troops have been landed at Aden and will proceed on their voyage in a British steamer.

THE WAR.

[REUTER'S SERVICE.]

THE ANGLO-RUSSIAN ENQUIRY COMMISSION.

LONDON, 1st December.

Admiral Davies has accepted the appointment on the Anglo-Russian North Sea Enquiry Commission.

THE PROPOSED PEACE CONFERENCE.

LONDON, 1st December.

Russia has suggested to the United States that the Hague Peace Conference be postponed till the conclusion of the war.

ANOTHER PAPER VICTORY.

LONDON, 1st December.

General Kuropatkin reported on the 30th ultimo that the Japanese rear-guard was retreating from Tsin-khe-chon, and were driven on the 29th ultimo from the pass where they had halted; the Russian losses were slight. The Japanese then retired to another fortified pass a mile and a half further on, which the Russians captured after a short but stubborn resistance.

THE RUSSIAN BALTIC FLEET.

LONDON, 2nd December.

Reuter's correspondent at Perm wires that two large and two small Russian warships have passed southwards.

THE SUPPLEMENTARY BALTIC FLEET.

LONDON, 2nd December.

The supplementary Baltic fleet has arrived at Tangier.

THE HAGUE PEACE CONFERENCE.

LONDON, 2nd December.

It is officially stated in Washington that Russia's suggestion to postpone the Hague Conference necessarily prevents the United States from taking any further steps at present, as it is desirable that Russia should participate in it.

ARRIVAL OF THE "BALTIMORE."

The second class United States cruiser Baltimore, Cape Sargant, arrived from Cavite yesterday morning. She had only been at Cavite about a fortnight, having just come out from Genoa via the Suez Canal. The vessel is on her way to Chefoo to relieve the New Orleans, and Admiral Folger, in command of the U.S. Far Eastern cruiser squadron, will probably transfer his flag to her. Her stay at Hongkong will be a brief one.

This is the first time the Baltimore has been out here since the time of the Spanish-American War, when she was one of Admiral Dewey's ships. Since then she has been so improved and altered that old timers here would hardly recognise her.

MINES IN THE YELLOW SEA.

The steamer Etchu-maru, which left Newchwang on the 10th Nov. for Moji, reports that at 10 a.m. on the 12th a mine was discovered about seventy miles from the Shantung coast about seventy miles from Port Arthur. In these waters the steamer traffic is very busy, and while the captain of the Etchu-maru thought it dangerous to take the floating object on board, bearing in mind the recent mine explosion at Moji, he also thought it still more dangerous to leave the mine to be a danger to a ship. He jumped overboard, and having fixed the mine, the mine was towed, and ultimately delivered to the Japanese Naval authorities at a Korean port. The act of the seaman certainly deserves, says the Kobe Chronicle, generous recognition.

Under the Sugar Convention Ordinance 1904 (states the Hongkong Government Gazette) Russia, Denmark, and the Argentine Republic have been notified by the permanent commission to be countries which grant bounties on the production or export of sugar.

Gun practice will be carried out to-day, to-morrow, and on the 8th inst. from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. from Eagle's Nest over the triangle formed by lines joining Eagle's Nest, Needle Hill, and the Spur of Tainioshan, West of Pineapple Pass (North-North-West to North). On the 7th inst. it will be carried out from Lyeemoon and Devil's Peak in the direction of Junk Bay and Tung San Island at ranges from 600 to 8,000 yards; and on the following day from Lyeemoon in the direction of Junk Bay at the same ranges.

A merry evening was spent at the Warrent Officers' Club on Saturday last, the occasion being the send-off of Gunner Ansell, Vice-President of the Club, who leaves with the Leventhor for the Mediterranean Station. Mr. Casey, President of the Club, spoke of the esteem in which their departing friend was held, and had much pleasure in presenting him, on behalf of the Club, with a handsome silver tobacco case, for which Mr. Ansell thanked the comrades he was leaving behind. A suitable programme of music was gone through during the evening.

The Bishop of Shanghai, in a private letter to the students of St. Augustine's College, Canterbury, where he was trained for the mission field, after being educated at St. Edmund's School in the city of Canterbury, writes from Chefoo:—Weihsuiwei is about 60 miles east of this. I have made one journey thither since I returned, and was much impressed with the importance of the work there. We have a school of some 20 Chinese boys, who, together with religious instruction, are receiving an English education. The importance of this lies in the fact that in China it seems that Western education is at last becoming a very important item in a man's training. It seems that in years to come a man who has been thus educated and who has a good knowledge of English, if he is worth his salt, will be a man of some power in the land. It is therefore of great importance that we English should have Christians who be ready to step into such positions. If Weihsuiwei develops at all as an English colony, it will be doubly important that we should have a strong contingent ready to take up good positions. The Chinese boys themselves are very keen in their study of English subjects, and put more heart into their work than I have ever seen in other mission schools.

CHEV. Z. VOLPICELLI DECORATED.

The Russian Government has sent, through the Italian Foreign Office, the decoration of St. Stanislas to Chev. Z. Volpicelli, the Italian Consul-General at Hongkong, for services rendered to the sailors, from the two sunken Russian men-o-war, who were on board the Italian cruiser Elba. The Elba, it will be remembered, remained for some time at Hongkong during March last.

DUKE OF ABRUZZI AT HONGKONG.

The Italian cruiser Liguria, under the command of the Duke of Abruzzi, arrived from Shanghai yesterday, and was visited by Chev. Z. Volpicelli (Consul-General for Italy) and Mr. R. Pescio (Italian commercial agent). The Prince has taken up his profession very seriously, this being his second trip around the world as a naval officer. On the first occasion—on board the Umbria in 1895—he was a sub-lieutenant and performed his duties just like any other junior naval officer. He is a very remarkable man, and this would be more generally recognised if he were not of royal blood. The fact, indeed, of his being a prince has thrown his work to a great extent in the background. He was the first man to make the ascent of Mount St. Elias, in Alaska, a very difficult task on account of its very northerly latitude. There were enormous glaciers almost from its very base. The altitude of Mount St. Elias is 14,970 feet. He is an enthusiastic sportsman, and has encouraged football amongst the naval officers. He recently owned one of the finest yachts in the Mediterranean. Out of his own pocket he furnished the Stella Polare expedition to the North Pole, and succeeded in penetrating to the highest latitude yet reached, getting farther north than Nansen.

Mr. J. H. Pidgeon has resigned from the Volunteers, and Mr. R. Glendinning has joined.

Captain G. Elgood has been appointed a member of the Wongsheichong and Queen's Recreation Grounds, vice Captain Radford, resigned.

Mr. H. C. Austen, owing to other duties, will be unable to carry on the duties of hon. secretary of the V.R.C. after the end of the present year.

A Port Regatta, on the initiative of Sir Matthew Nathan, may take place in January or February next. His Excellency will present a Cup as one of the prizes.

An account of revenue and expenditure and a comparative statement of the same for the first three quarters of 1904, and a statement of assets and liabilities on the 30th September, 1904, are published in the Hongkong Government Gazette.

The Fochoon Echo on Nov. 26th welcomed Mrs. Dew and Miss C. J. Lambert, returning to the port; and announced the immediately approaching marriage of Dr. Davenport of Canton and Miss Ida Chambers, a nurse at the Fochoon Native Hospital.

The Masonic Quadrille Club held an unostentatious but enjoyable ball at the Masonic Hall on Saturday evening. An excellent supper was provided. Members of the Committee deserving special mention are Bros. Harry Wolfe (chairman), J. J. Sibbit and W. H. E. Smith. The next dance will be held on the 3rd January.

The average amount of Bank notes in circulation and of specie in reserve at Hongkong during November was as follows:—

	Banks.	Average.	Reserve.
Chartered Bank .....	8,367,345	82,300,000
H. K. & S. Bank .....	12,397,557	7,000,000
National Bank .....	354,816	150,000
Total .....	8,145,258	89,350,000

The Circus to-night (Monday), as already announced, is to be favoured with the presence of His Excellency the Governor, for whom the proprietors have erected a special platform box, with furniture and hangings. This is the last week of the show, and an extra-special programme has been made to give the Hongkong people something to remember until they return. On Tuesday night, the "Dick Turpin" spectacle is being put on.

We have received from the Editors of the Victoria Recreation Club Magazine, a record of local sport, the first (December) number. It is a promising little magazine. H.E. Sir Matthew Nathan was invited to write a message; an extract from his reply is as follows:—"Sport for sport's sake, and in due subordination to the more earnest duties of life, promotes physical fitness, good fellowship, and strenuousness of purpose." He assumed that the magazine was intended to keep up interest in rowing, swimming and athletics. These had attained a high, and might attain a still higher, standard of excellence at Hongkong.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Mr. Frederick Mayers, of the Imperial Chinese Maritime Customs Service, his Majesty's Royal licence and authority that he may accept and wear the Insignia of the First Class of the Third Division of the Imperial Chinese Order of the Double Dragon, conferred upon him by his Imperial Majesty the Emperor of China. The King has also been pleased to give authority to Mr. Hermann Dawson Grone, of the Imperial Chinese Maritime Customs Service, to accept and wear the Insignia of the Third Class of the same order.

Mr. Gordon Stafford Northcote, son of the late Rev. H. M. Northcote, was married recently to Miss Amy Pay at St. Peter's Church, Budeleigh, England. Mr. Northcote was for many years in the Registrar-General's office in Hongkong, and was for some time Private Secretary to Sir John Pope Hennessy. At other times he filled the positions of Sheriff of the Supreme Court, Coroner, and Assistant Postmaster-General in Hongkong. He is a brother of Mr. Mowbray S. Northcote, of the Hongkong Land Investment and Agency Co.

The following programme of music is to be performed by the Band of the Royal West Kent Regiment in the Public Gardens to-day (Monday), beginning at four o'clock:—
March .....

This week begins a series of religious festivals for the Roman Catholics in Hongkong and Macao in celebration of the Jubilee of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin. The days appointed for the celebrations in Hongkong are from the 7th to the 11th instant. The principal day is Thursday, the 8th instant, the annual feast day of the Immaculate Conception. On this day there will be a general communion at 7 a.m., followed by a solemn High Mass with a full choir at 8 a.m. At 4.30 p.m. there will be a sermon followed by a procession around the Cathedral compound, to conclude with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. In the evening there will be general illumination of the Cathedral Campanile and all the Roman Catholic buildings in the Colony. The celebrations in Macao are on a more extensive and elaborate scale, which include processions, illuminations of the whole city, a series of Al Fresco Fêtes among the ruins of the old church of S. Paulo, the laying of the foundation stone for the reconstruction of this same church, fireworks, and military bands.

letter—the "following letter," it will be remembered, stating plainly that in the event of the Japanese gaining sufficient advantage "we can join with the latter and help them to drive the Russians out." If Li Hung Chang was sincere when he wrote that, and our contemporary says "he knew when he wrote it that the hand of death was upon him," the insincerity seems to rest with the Russian Minister, who, according to our contemporary, "succeeded in persuading" him to write it. The North China Herald expresses great faith in the authority of "the Foreign Editor" of the Times, who "penetrated the true character and aims" of Li Hung Chang better than anybody else. Surely, however, the letter speaks for itself, and cannot carry the construction put upon it by our contemporary. Whatever his methods, the aims of Li Hung Chang in this matter appear correct. The only point of our contemporary's comments with which we agree is that in which they repeat our previously expressed opinion that Li Hung Chang was wrong in attaching any value to Russian gratitude. Our contemporary seems determined to see duplicity in that letter. A little disingenuity there may be, in his assumption that Russia might win the inevitable war, for we are quite willing to believe that the man whose shrewdness stands out so conspicuously in the letter had some inkling even then of the surprises that Japan had ready for the legions of the Tsar. It would, apart from such inkling, have been quite in keeping with the characteristic Chinese conceit for him to calculate as foot-balls do sometimes, that if A team beats B, and B beats C, then A will also beat C. Japan had beaten China: she would also beat Russia.

Our contemporary styles the late diplomat "the man who sold China," but in the same sentence points out that the sale was not completed, "owing to the patriotic opposition of the Yangtze and Southern Viceroy's." Li Hung Chang regarded them as stupid, misunderstanding patriots, and we are still inclined to adopt his view. It is exceedingly likely that "all the high Chinese officials," our contemporary, and the Times "Foreign Editor," who call Li Hung Chang a traitor, and publish a letter that seems to prove he was not, are also misunderstanding the matter. If all those high Chinese officials referred to by our contemporary continue, in face of this letter, to believe him false to his country, we are sorry for the country whose affairs they presumably administer. It should rehabilitate him, even in the eyes of the Times, which fortunately vouches for the letter. Even in the wily, double game he played, the duplicity of which our contemporary condemns, Li Hung Chang was true to the traditions of his nation. "HUI NAN TZE, prince of Kuang Ling," in the "History of Great Light," says "force can only be successful in combating what is weaker than itself... but weakness can overcome what is far stronger than itself."

If we read on, we learn that by "weakness" is implied such diplomacy as Li Hung Chang outlines in this posthumous letter of his. "It is always the man who does a thing for the first time who has the difficulties to contend with... the pioneers are simply the target on which those who come after them practise shooting." That is Chinese gospel, so to speak, and Li Hung's letter is permeated with it. It is, as our contemporary says, characterised by cunning and duplicity, but it is certainly not, as our contemporary states, one-third "shortsightedness." "The best public opinion in China" must admit, on the contrary, that what Li Hung Chang foresaw has come about. We are afraid that our contemporary must have read the letter very superficially. They say that "solid arguments brought Li Hung Chang openly to the side of Russia." We say this bombshell of a letter must alter our estimate of the man. It certainly shows that Russia was getting a sorry return for her "solid arguments," and it indicates that Li Hung Chang was no intentional traitor to his own country.

The English Mail of the 5th November was delivered in London on the 3rd inst.

Lady and Miss Noel were passengers who arrived on Saturday from London by the English mail steamer Bengal.

A river steamer may be used as flagship during the Hongkong Regatta. The Regatta Dinner is fixed for the 10th inst.

The s.s. Goldmouth is to undergo a trial trip to-day for the purpose of demonstrating the working of liquid fuel.

A Volunteer Dance may be held this winter. A meeting will be held at Headquarters on Wednesday next, at 5.30 p.m., to discuss the matter.

HONGKONG, DECEMBER 5TH, 1904.

THE remarkable letter written by the late Li Hung Chang, with which we recently dealt in this column, has been regarded very differently by our Shanghai contemporary, the Herald. There is, of course, room for differences of opinion on most subjects; but we have to confess that a study of our contemporary's comments on this letter leaves us in some bewilderment. In that now famous communication unearthed by the Times, Li Hung Chang begged Yung Lu to carry on the policy of letting Russia alone in Manchuria until the anticipated war with Japan ensued, and then to side with the winning Power, whichever it might be. Our contemporary admits, as we did, the accuracy of Li Hung Chang's prevision, and the shrewdness of the man; but professes to see, in this very letter, evidence in support of the theory that its writer "sold China to Russia." The chief point of the letter lies in the sentence, "Thus we shall get back Manchuria," and we are quite unable to understand how our contemporary can make that square with its idea that the deceased statesman was selling China. To use a colloquialism, it was Russia that was being sold. Our contemporary says "the Russian Minister at Peking succeeded in persuading the moribund Tsar to send the following

NOTABLE CEREMONY AT MACAO.

Everybody who has time goes to Macao. Gamblers, honeycombers, tourists—all arise at an unearthly hour, and go to be impressed by the ups and downs of life there, its charming environments and its urban dirt. The mind picture that survives is probably that of the facade of St. Paul's Cathedral. This big front wall, with its sculptured angels, and its glassless windows, is now to have the cathedral that belongs to it restored. The Bishop of Macao laid the foundation stone yesterday, in the presence of thousands of the faithful.

The ancient collegiate church of St. Paul was built some time between 1594 and 1602—a wonderful era where foreign enterprise in China is concerned. A Macao correspondent of the Mingpao writes: "The church of St. Paul's was begun in 1602, as was to be seen by the inscription on the corner-stone, but it was not completed until about 1623. The story of its building shows how intimately the interests of religion were affected by the vicissitudes of the colony, and to what extent the mission felt the ups and downs of commerce and war. In 1602, one of Macao's richly-laden vessels from Japan, bearing the fortunes of many of the wealthiest colonists, was lost on her voyage home. The following year another vessel of the colony was captured in the Straits of Singapore by the Dutch, and on the same day that the disheartening news reached Macao, three ships of the same inveterate enemies and rivals of the Portuguese sailed boldly into the Macao roads and took possession of a vessel all laden for Japan, and the crew happened to be ashore. Such losses weighed heavily upon the little colony, and many a work of zeal projected by the missionaries had to be delayed, or given up altogether, for want of the alms which in the time of prosperity flowed in so generously. Among the delays was that of the building of St. Paul's church. The edifice had been planned on a grand scale, and as money was wanting to execute the plans, work was discontinued."

In an excellent old book, compiled by N. B. Denys of the Consular Service, in 1867, we read: "Subsequently to the expulsion of the Jesuits from the Portuguese dominions (A.D. 1759) their collegiate establishment was converted into barracks, but was consumed by fire on the night of January 27, 1865. The granite facade of the old church, which was preserved intact, is said to have been built by Japanese stonemasons, brought to Macao for this purpose. The following description of its architecture is given by Ljungstedt:

"The ingenious artist has contrived to combine Grecian architecture by devotional objects. In the middle of the ten pillars of Ionic order are three doors, leading to the temple; then above range ten pillars of Corinthian order, which constitute five separate niches. In the middle one, above the principal door, we perceive a female figure, trampling on the globe, the emblem of human patriotism, and underneath we read Mater Dei. On each side of the Queen of Heaven, in distinct places, are four statues of Jesuit Saints. In the superior division, St. Paul is represented, and also a dove, the emblem of the Holy Ghost."

"In 1868 the side-walls of the church, which, though of great thickness, were considered unsafe, were cut down to a height of about 25 feet, and were cut away on the inside to form shelves which were used as a place of internment for Roman Catholics. The Rev. J. A. Gonsalves, well known to students of Chinese by his works on that language, was buried here. The building has been finally closed for some years past."

When Macao was being attacked, one Fr. Rho did yeoman service with a big gun, and "W. L. H." says:

"So grateful were the colonists for Fr. Rho's services at the critical moment, that they resolved that St. Paul's should be completed without further delay. It was really a beautiful church, as is amply testified by the monumental facade still standing almost intact. Fr. Jarrie, the historian of the Indian missions, says that St. Paul's of Macao was similar to St. Paul's of Goa. The facade is of granite, richly sculptured with allegorical and mystical devices, the only fault perhaps to be found with it being that it appears somewhat over-charged. Only the front was of granite; the walls were massive structures of a kind of concrete, composed principally of ferruginous sand from decomposed granite, mixed with mud from the river and a little lime."

Fr. Alexander de Rhodes, S.J., the celebrated missionary of Cochinchina, writing from Macao in 1623, says of St. Paul's College and church: "Our Society has a large college here which can be compared with the finest in Europe. At least the church is the most magnificent I have seen, even in Italy, excepting St. Peter's of Rome." There may perhaps be some exaggeration in this judgment of the enthusiastic missionary, but his words are on record to show at least what impression the edifice made upon him. The writer has had the good fortune of hearing an old and highly honoured Portuguese native of the colony grow enthusiastic over the beauty of St. Paul's when it still stood in the first quarter of the century. The woodwork particularly, executed entirely by skilled Japanese workmen, was praised as exquisitely beautiful.

The church stood until 1835, when it was burnt down one blustering wintry night. The frontispiece, as has been said, still stands almost intact, with even the fine bronze statues of Our Lady, of St. Paul, and four Jesuit saints still in their niches."

A PARSEE PRESENTATION.

A large gathering of the members of the Parsee community of Hongkong and Canton met at the Parsee Club House in Elgin Street at 5 o'clock on Saturday evening in honour of Mr. Frangjee H. Arjane, who has acted as a trustee and honorary secretary of the Parsee Charity Funds for the last six years, and who is returning to Bombay by the steamer Lightning, and will not be returning to Hongkong. The object of the meeting was to present him, as a parting souvenir, with a handsome urn made of solid silver, with two silver trays, silver glasses, and other minor accessories, from the Parsee community of Hongkong and Canton. It may be perhaps interesting to add that the Parsees use the urns to put the fire on which they burn sandalwood and other incense while saying their prayers; fire, which is the source of heat and light, and consequently of all life, being considered by them as an outward manifestation of the Holy Aluramaz, the Creator of the Universe. As Mr. Arjane belongs to the priest class, and is known to be extremely religious, this form of presentation was agreed upon by the subscribers as fit and appropriate.

The silver urn and trays bear the following inscription in Gujarati: "Presented to Mr. Frangjee Hormusjee Arjane by the Parsee community of Hongkong and Canton in grateful recognition of his valuable services rendered as a Trustee and Honorary Secretary of their Charity Funds. November, 1904."

The meeting hall was profusely decorated with green foliage and festoons of flowers, and great enthusiasm prevailed. The meeting was presided over by Mr. H. N. Mody, the popular leader of the Parsee community of South China, and proceedings were opened by his reading the following telegram from the Parsee community of Canton:

"H. N. Mody, President Parsee community Hongkong. Please inform to-day's meeting we one and all heartily join in presentation to our esteemed secretary Arjane, wishing him bon voyage.—CANTON ANJUMAN (community)."

Mr. H. RUTTOJEE, while requesting the President to make the presentation in the name of the subscribers, gave a short history of the movement. He said that in deference to the generally expressed wishes of the members of the community, and their urgent request, he in conjunction with some friends started and circulated a subscription list amongst the members of the Parsee community of Hongkong and Canton, and out of 110 members, 101 readily subscribed various sums making up a total of 600 dollars in five days. It would thus seem that virtually the whole community had joined in doing honour to Mr. Arjane, who is rightly held in high esteem by his co-religionists for his righteousness, independence, and other virtues. He eulogised the valuable services rendered by Mr. Arjane to the poor members of the community by quietly getting subscriptions for them from the more fortunate members of the community, and he paid a tribute to Mr. Arjane's zeal and disinterested efforts in increasing the charity funds to a figure very nearly verging on one lac of dollars. He concluded by expressing his hearty good wishes for Mr. Arjane's health and future happiness.

Mr. N. K. ANITA, of Messrs Tata & Co., followed with a short speech, heartily endorsing what had fallen from Mr. H. Ruttojee. He pointed out that though the presents were not of great value, they were the very embodiment of the hearty good wishes and deep gratitude the community felt for Mr. Arjane's valuable work as a trustee and the secretary of the Charity Funds.

Mr. H. N. Mody, who was heartily cheered, then made the presentation in the name of the subscribers. In a short and touching speech he spoke in eulogistic terms of the unobtrusive zeal with which Mr. Arjane had served the community as the secretary of their Charity Funds, and he assured his hearers as their President that his work of administering the funds of the community was a great deal facilitated by the zeal, fidelity, and conscientious work which Mr. Arjane as his colleague had brought to bear upon it. He expressed his personal regret at the idea of separation from such an esteemed colleague and co-religionist, as he had been accustomed by long association, and by his virtues, to look upon Mr. Arjane not only as a sympathetic friend, but also as an affectionate brother. He hoped that Mr. Arjane would live a long and useful life in his native land, full of honour and happiness.

Mr. ARJANE, who seemed deeply touched, made a short reply. He expressed his heartfelt and sincere thanks to all those who had assembled there, and also to all the members of the community who had evinced so much sympathy, and extended to him the right hand of fellowship and brotherly regard. He protested, however, that he had done nothing more than his duty, and that he did not merit the honour done him, and he assured his hearers that he highly appreciated the good wishes they expressed for him. He accepted the present as a souvenir of their kindness, and said that he would preserve it in his family as a reminder of the happy days he had spent in China, and he assured them that this tangible proof of the extreme kindness and sympathy which they, as his co-religionists and countrymen, had extended to him during his stay in this colony, would always remain enshrined in his memory.

After the presentation ceremony was over, the company adjourned to the dining room, where light refreshments were served, and where Mr. Mody proposed the health of Mr. Arjane, wishing him a pleasant and a safe passage home, to which a suitable reply was given. After a vote of thanks to Mr. Mody for having presided over the meeting had been accorded as usual, the company dispersed after giving cheers for Mr. Arjane and their ever-popular leader.

THE WEST POINT FIRE INQUIRY.

Mr. H. H. J. Gompertz continued on Saturday the inquiry into the cause of the fire which occurred at Chung Kan Lane, West Point, on the 23rd November.

As before, Mr. H. W. Looker (of Messrs Deacon, Looker and Deacon) represented the following insurance companies:—The London and Lancashire, the Sun, the Royal, the Hip On, the Yee On, the Commercial Union, the Tung On, the Fuk On, and the Union, all of which were interested in godown No. 3. Mr. Coppin represented the Northern Insurance Company, which was interested in godowns No. 1 and 2. Mr. Chung Yn Fan represented the Yee On Insurance Company, which was interested in godown No. 4, and Mr. Leung Yan Kwal represented the Un On Insurance Company, which was interested in Godowns No. 1 and 2.

Yuen Coon Yee, partner in the Nan Pat Yee, gave evidence that his firm had rice husks, bags and other goods there and were interested in the destroyed godowns. They were interested in No. 4 godown to the extent of about $43,000 and Nos. 1 and 2 for about $46,000. The total insurance effected was about $89,000, which was effected with five different companies. No. 2 godown was filled with rice, but No. 1 was not. The two godowns together contained about 2,500 bags of rice, and also about 13,000 bags of husks and 11,000 bags of oil.

Ip Choy, keeper of No. 4 godown, stated that he saw the bags of rice husks, which were stored near the wall which adjoined No. 3, burning in No. 2. They being unable to extinguish the flames he ran to No. 4 to get his books, and when he came out again No. 4 had taken fire. Some coolies with lamps were working in No. 2 when the fire broke out.

After further evidence the enquiry was adjourned till 2.15 p.m. to-day.

RACING.

ST. ANDREW'S STAKES.

St. Andrew's stakes, a half-mile contest, was raced as arranged, by some of this season's subscription griffins at the Happy Valley Race Course on Saturday, at 7.30 a.m. Included amongst those present were H.E. Sir Matthew Nathan, K.C.M.G., Capt. Smith, A.D.C., Sir Paul Chater, C.M.G., Hon. F. H. and Mrs. May, Hon. W. J. Gresson, Hon. Gershom Stewart, Messrs. T. F. Hough, H. P. White, and E. Mast. The ten starters were as follows:—

Mr. Apeur's dam (Mr. Gegg) ..... 1
Messrs. White and Pirey's brown (Mr. Alderton) ..... 3
Mr. Cruickshank's black (owner) ..... 4
Hon. W. J. Gresson's spotted (owner) ..... 0
Mr. Walker's grey (Mr. Knox) ..... 0
Mr. McKie's grey (Mr. Robertson) ..... 0
Messrs. Ede and Pott's grey (Mr. Mackie) ..... 0
Mr. Johnson's white (owner) ..... 0
Mr. Inglis' dam (owner) ..... 0

The ponies, taking into consideration that they were only half trained, looked very well. The start was a good one. Mr. Apeur's pony, with Mr. Gegg up, led to the finish. The Governor's pony, Mr. Clarke up, pressed the leader towards the close. Whips and spurs were used. An excellent finish was contested by His Excellency's pony and that belonging to Mr. Apeur, the latter winning by about half a head.

Time—1 min. 4 sec.
LITTLE MONO V. DESERT KING.
The tie between Little Mono and Desert King for second place in the Gynkhana Club Challenge Cup was then run off. The race was over a mile course. Little Mono, Mr. W. J. Clarke up, took a lead at the commencement, and led to the black rock. Desert King, which had been held in hand, then challenged and shortly afterwards drew half a length or so in front of the other. A most exciting finish was witnessed—a dead heat.

FOOTBALL.

HONGKONG FOOTBALL CLUB V. NAVAL YARD.

This match was played at Happy Valley on Saturday between the following teams:—

The Club:—F. H. Kew, goal; W. G. Leckie and E. F. Ancoff, backs; H. C. Gray, R. Macpherson, and J. Wemyss, halves; A. O. Lang, N. H. Rutherford, W. H. Williams (Capt.), J. Clarke, and H. L. Garrett, forwards. Naval Yard:—Bacon, goal; Watson and Taylor, backs; Marryat, Glover, and Coyne, halves; Ruby, Ridley, Gladwell, Watkins, and Littlewood, forwards.

This was a very tame game, and a considerable part of the time was taken up with the blowing of the referee's whistle. Garrett succeeded in scoring one goal for the Club, while Gladwell shot the ball into the net for the Naval men.

Result: Club, 1; Naval Yard, 1.

LATEST STEAMER MOVEMENTS.

HILLS V. PLAINS.

A match between upwellers and downwellers on Saturday attracted a good deal of interest. The low level men showed a high level of excellence at the wicket, compiling 158 more runs than the Peak folk. Mr. A. G. Ward's well-kept 65, and Mr. T. E. Pearce's fifty, were prominent features of the winning score. Mr. Pearce's bowling was responsible chiefly for the failure of the top-side batsmen. He sent down six overs, two of which were maiden, and captured four wickets for only 19 runs. Captain Lamson also did well as a troubler, dismissing three men in five overs at a cost of ten runs. The best bowler for the Plains was Mr. R. E. O. Bird, who got four wickets for eleven runs each. Scores:—

MORAL INFLUENCE OF THE EUROPEAN IN THE FAR EAST.

INTERESTING LECTURE BY MR. DYER BALL.

Mr. Dyer Ball gave a very interesting lecture at the Y.M.C.A. last evening on the "Moral influence of the European in the Far East." He said it was one of the laws of their existence that, whether they liked it or not, they exerted influence on their fellow men. It was no use saying "Am I my brother's keeper," because their brother to a great extent took his cue from them. They know how a younger looked up to his elder brother and copied him. A case in point, showing how Europeans influenced others was that of Japan. This, of course, applied to a nation as a whole, but it also applied to individuals. Personally, he always tried to look on the bright side of things, as those who knew him or his writings would agree. He recognised the good work of missionaries, and their example. Also, there were many cases where commercial men had exercised beneficial influence on Chinese with whom they had come in contact. His intention, however, was to point out the mistakes they made in their intercourse with Chinese. There was the opium trade, a curse to China; their action in connection with this was not commendable. Another dark question was the opinion Chinese had formed from seeing the moral character of some Europeans in the treaty ports. The Chinese stigmatised the whole people as low in consequence. They believed that all foreigners—it did not matter whether they were Christians or not, because the Chinese were not capable of judging—were immoral; such, indeed, was very sad. In Canton, not so long back, the natives were beginning to know when it was Sunday because the river steamers did not arrive on that day, but that had been destroyed—some river steamers do run now. They had their ten commandments, and these were broken right before the heathen. Sometimes Europeans knocked down or hit Chinese for practically no reason whatever, and the Chinese generally refrained from retaliating because they were a peace-loving people. This, however, was not always the case. Some fifty-seven years ago six young Englishmen went off into the country on the outskirts of Canton. On approaching a village, they met some Chinese labourers coming from the fields, and shoved them off the path, hitting one old man—it was bad enough to hit an old man, but this one happened to be the village elder. They were taken in custody and killed. The facts of the case did not excuse the Chinese but it was not out and out murder, and the Englishmen were largely to blame for their fate. There were continually cases of Chinese who happened to have enlarged spleens or other maladies succumbing to kicks from Englishmen. It made a man feel sorrow to think that he had caused the death of another, but he was not guilty of murder. What they had to look at was the material result. Did it not degrade a man to hit another without provocation? And, very often, to hit men with more brains than themselves! Had not the Chinese their poetry, their literature and civilization dating back to the time when Europeans were savages? They (Europeans) had gone into a colder climate and acquired whiter skins than the Chinese; they were also proud of their modern civilization, and religion—but did such actions as he had enumerated earn respect? Europeans and Chinese, certainly, would not blend together for many years to come as the two civilizations were so different, but it appeared to him that they could have far friendlier relations than at present.

THE MARRIAGE OF MISS ALICE DES VOEUX.

Many old residents in the Colony will doubtless be interested to read the following account from the Times of November 2nd, of the marriage of Miss Alice Des Vaux, daughter of Sir William Des Vaux, C.M.G., a former Governor of Hongkong:—
The marriage of Captain Sir Thomas Montgomery Cunningham, D.S.O., Rifle Brigade, with Miss Alice Des Vaux, elder daughter of Sir William and Lady Des Vaux, of Cadogan-square, took place in St. Peter's Church, Eaton-square, yesterday afternoon. The aisle was lined by non-commissioned officers and men of the Rifle Brigade. The bride was accompanied by her father, who gave her away, and was attended by eight bridesmaids—Miss Bettine Des Vaux, her sister; Miss Bridget Cunningham, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Webster, sister of Sir Augustus Webster; Miss Hay, daughter of Admiral of the Fleet Lord John Hay; Miss Esther and Miss Margaret Combe, daughters of Mr. Richard and Lady Constance Combe; Lady Violet Ponsonby, sister of Earl Ponsonby; and Miss Reynolds, daughter of Sir Alfred Reynolds. The bride wore a gown of ivory satin, draped with Brussels lace, the gift of her mother. A wreath of myrtle was covered by a lace veil, and her ornaments were pearls, with diamond earrings, the bridegroom's gift. She carried a sheaf of lilies. Her bridesmaids wore picturesque dresses of rose du Barry silk, the crossed bodices draped into high corselets, fastened down the side of the front with tiny pink roses with gold centres. Their large hats were of brown velvet and tulle, with a few pink chrysanthemums under the brim, and they carried large brown marabout muffs, the gift of the bridegroom. The Bishop of St. Andrews, Primate of the Scottish Episcopal Church, cousin of the bride, officiated, assisted by the Rev. Alfred Gough, vicar of Brompton, and the Rev. George Wilkinson, cousin of the bride. Mr. E. Cunningham acted as best man. Lady Des Vaux afterwards held a reception at her house in Cadogan-square.

THE PLIMSOLL LINE.

A CASE OF IMPORTANCE TO MASTER MARINERS.

On November 18th, at Singapore, Goh Tat Pong and Haji Salleh, owner and master respectively of the s.s. Aing Leong, were arraigned under section 4, clauses I, II, and III, of Ordinance X of 1887, as amended by Ordinance of 1892, for submerging the load line of the s.s. Aing Leong. Mr. Farrer prosecuted. Mr. Ellis defended. The Deputy Public Prosecutor withdrew the charge against the owner. The master pleaded "guilty" and the owner "not guilty."

J. Willock, second Boarding Officer, said he went on board the Aing Leong on the 1st inst. to see it was not overloaded. He found the load line submerged five inches on both sides. He told the master, who said he would unload. Mr. Ellis:—The "blue peter" was at the mast-head. The vessel had ceased loading. The surplus cargo was taken over.

J. Lawrence, Marine Surveyor, said he saw on passing the ship that the load line was submerged. The master was not on board. J. Willock, recalled, said he saw the master in a sampan.

Mr. Ellis addressed the Court and said the question of submergence did not constitute an offence unless the master allowed it. The reason given for withdrawing the charge against the owner applied equally to the master. Knowledge of the overloading must be proved. A case to the point was quoted. The charge would stand if the owner appointed a master who he knew would overload. The master was not on board when the overloading was discovered. The offence was on the morning of the 1st inst. and the fact that the master went on board some hours after this would not make him liable.

Haji Salleh said he remembered the 1st inst. and the fact of the submergence. He went ashore that morning at 7.30 and returned to the ship about 2 p.m. It was not part of his duty to see to the loading of the ship; the gunner was responsible. The loading was done when he went on board. He saw that the disc was submerged, and at once made arrangements to unload. This was before Mr. Willock went on board. He had nothing at all to do with the cargo; that was the chindin's business.

By Mr. Farrer:—He was responsible for the ship. He told Mr. Willock he had arranged to unload.

Lim Ne Chok, clerk on the ship, said he was on board the Aing Leong on the 1st inst. He went on board at 8 a.m. The master was there, but he went ashore, because a witness found him away about an hour later. The master returned about 2 p.m.

Haji Ali, gunner of the Aing Leong, said he superintended the loading of the ship on the 1st inst. The master was ashore. The loading was already completed when he returned. The master told him the insurance line was under water and gave orders that no more cargo should be received. Witness was aware that the line was submerged. It was his duty to attend to this.

Mr. Ellis drew the attention of the Court to what he had already said, adding that though a technical offence had been committed by some one it was not committed by the person charged. The defendant was fined $100.—Strait Times.

SHARE REPORT.

Messrs. Erich Georg & Co. in their weekly share list, dated the 3rd inst., state:—
During the week under review business has been rather quiet, being confined to but few stocks. The general tone is rather weak, as money amongst Chinese is getting tighter. The Sterling demand rate on London closes at 1s. 10½d, while the Shanghai rate is more or less nominal and difficult to quote. Bursville in London is quoted 27 7½d. and Consols 288½.

BANK SHARES.—Hongkong and Shanghai have been done at $705 to $71½, and small lots are wanted at latter rate; the London quotation is 270. Nationals have receded to 339 sellers.
MARINE INSURANCE SHARES.—Unions sold at advancing rates, and up to $885 has been paid, at which figure shares can be placed. China Traders seem to be a trifle easier, a small lot being in the market at $63½. A sale of North China is reported at 11s. 100, at which rate, how ever, shares are on offer. Yangtze and Cantons are unchanged and without business.

FIRE INSURANCE SHARES.—Hongkong can be placed at $335; a sale at $340 for 31st January has been effected. China might be placed at $30.

SHIPPING SHARES.—Small lots of Hongkong, Canton and Macao Steamboat Shares have been taken off the market, but more shares are on offer. Indo-China weakened with cash sales from Shanghai at 11s. 80 to 90; the cash rate locally dropped to 11s. 26 with corresponding rates ahead, but the market, both here and in Shanghai, strengthening, a fair business has been done at $127 to $129 cash, $128 to $130 for 31st December, $131 to $132½ for 31st March, and $133 to $136 for 30th June, the market closing with cash buyers at $129, Shanghai quoting 11s. 9½d, while London wires a quotation of 211. 15s. 0d. China and Manilla, as well as Douglas, have remained quiet, and quotations are unchanged. Star Ferries are weak with sellers at $40 for old and $30 for new shares. Shell Transports fetched 24 shillings; the London rate is 25s. 8d. sellers.

REFINERIES.—China sugars followed a downward course, and a sale as low as $23½ is rumoured, but the closing tendency is much firmer with cash buyers at $23½, and $237 for 31st instant, and the cash sellers under $236. Luzons are in demand at the improved rate of $77.

MINING SHARES.—Rauha have been done and wanted at $5.

DOCKS, WHARVES, AND GODOWNS.—Hongkong and Whampoa Dock Company's shares sold at $218 to $219 cash, closing steady at latter rate; a sale at $228 for 31st March has been put through. Hongkong and Kowloon Wharf and Godown Company's shares are on offer at $115, and New Amoy Dock Shares at $27. Farnham have weakened considerably, and the closing quotation is 17s. 173. Shanghai and Hongkong Wharves are unchanged, 13s. 137½ for old and 13s. 135 for new shares.

LANDS, HOTELS, AND BUILDINGS.—Hongkong Land Investment and Agency Company's shares sold at $149, closing with small buyers at $148. Kowloon Lands are on offer at $38, and West Point at $80. "HONGKONG HOTELS" are unobtainable at $14½, in fact with shares firm in hand, a higher rate is obtainable. Humphreys Estate and Finance Company's shares sold at $14 for old shares, and more are on offer, also new shares at $5. Shanghai Lands are quoted 11s. 117.

COTTON MILLS.—Ewes have advanced to buyers at 1s. 25; other Shanghai mills are unchanged. Hongkong Cottons can be placed at $12½; at $12½ there are sellers.

MISCELLANEOUS.—China Borneo sold in large lots at $12 to $13, and are wanted at latter rate. China Providents found purchasers at $93.

Dairy Farms have been done and are in demand at $30. Fenwick's have dropped to sellers at $45. Green Island Cement Shares and are for sale at $142. Steam Waterboats sold and are for sale at $20. Lungkat have dropped to 1s. 250, at which rate, however, there are buyers. South China Morning Post Shares have been fixed and can be placed at $20. China Light and Power changed ownership at $10. Watsons are in the market at $13 for old and $12½ for new shares.

The Allenburys Foods
The Milk Foods closely approximate in composition to, and are as easy of digestion as Maternal Milk. They provide a perfect diet for the formation of firm flesh and strong bones. The Milk Foods are absolutely free from any noxious germs, and hence are far superior to cow's milk as obtained in towns, especially in hot weather. No diarrhoea, digestive or stomach troubles need be feared from the use of the "Allenburys" Foods. The "Allenburys" Foods are three in number, and so graduated as to provide the maximum amount of nourishment that the child is able to digest at the period of life for which the foods are respectively recommended.
